Did You Know?

Grand Exalted Ruler Henry A. Melvin, in his report to the Grand Lodge in 1907, recommended the observance of Flag Day by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

red, white

The Grand Lodge adopted his suggestion at this meeting and urged all local Lodges to take part in ceremonies honoring our flag and its history.

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was the first fraternal organization to observe Flag Day.

The President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue annually a proclamation calling upon officials of the Government to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on such day, and urging the people to observe the day as the anniversary of the adoption on June 14, 1777, by the Continental Congress of the Stars and Stripes as the official flag of the United States of America.

The importance of every single U.S. flag, and how it is displayed is keenly observed by the Elks. We celebrate over 110 years of the Grand Lodge's 1907 designation of June 14 as Flag Day, which was followed in 1911 with the Order's approval for mandatory observance by all Lodges.

We hope that as you acknowledge the great love for your country by displaying our flag, you may reference the information in this guide, and maybe learn more about its history.

How Our Flag Was Born:

PRE-REVOLUTION

The colonies had many local flags, one of the most famous was the "RATTLESNAKE FLAG," with the slogan "Don't tread on me," as a warning to the British.

1775

The "PINE TREE BANNER" FLAG was used on America's first fleet of warships which engaged the British in battle Nov. - Dec. 1775.

1775-1776

The "CONGRESS COLOR", or "GRAND UNION" FLAG, had 13 alternating red and white stripes represented the 13 original colonies. The flag used in early battles with the British.

1777

FIRST AUTHORIZED AMERICAN FLAG, established by Congressional Resolution on June 14; we celebrate FLAG DAY on that date.

1794

The SECOND CONGRESSIONAL FLAG Act added 2 stars and stripes to represent admission of Vermont and Kentucky to the Union.

1818

PRESENT FLAG established by Congress, from then on, stripes would stay at original 13, but a new star would be added for each state that joined the Union added on July 4 following admission. Note: only 20 stars in 1818.
